

Paraphrasing Transform reading into your own words	Information
Headline Create a title that defines your reading	Purpose
Topic Sentence Select the one most important sentence in the readings	Defining
Purpose Why was the piece written?	Purpose
Conclusion Most important reason for the writing: the purpose!	inference
Question Any questions for research	Questions
SEEI (Used for new words) State: the definition. Elaborate: define in my own words. Exemplify: show examples. Illustrate: Use a picture or a drawing	Concepts
Notes <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	Use these concepts to help absorb readings. In your journals use these to help focus the lens of your reader's response.

Word Rogues' Puppet Strings: to read critically

